Enclarity continues rapid expansion among healthcare payers and PPOs

InterGroup Services Corporation cites depth of clean information as key to improving its claims processing

ALISO VIEJO, Calif., April 16, 2008 – Enclarity, Inc., a leading healthcare information solutions company, recently added InterGroup Services Corporation to its client roster, furthering its rapid expansion into the healthcare payer and PPO categories. InterGroup, the most comprehensive PPO network in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, has signed on with Enclarity so that it can provide its one million members with the most correct, current and comprehensive provider information available.

“Bringing InterGroup Services Corporation on is a great win for Enclarity,” said Sean Downs, president and chief executive officer, Enclarity. “We look forward to demonstrating the tremendous value our services bring to PPOs through clean, up-to-date provider information.”

By using ProviderPoint[®], Enclarity’s complete provider information solution, InterGroup is increasing its auto-adjudication rate for claims and ensuring that its provider directory is accurate. ProviderPoint cleans and augments the InterGroup provider file, and delivers accurate provider information. Using the most correct, current and comprehensive information is reducing the cost of processing claims and increasing customer satisfaction levels of clients.

“We chose Enclarity for its superior service and depth of data used to verify provider information,” said John George, president, InterGroup Services Corporation. “The accuracy of the information provided by Enclarity allows us to better serve our existing clients and will be a way to attract new clients and payers.”
